At the Butler this evening a splendid programme will be shown, as follows: "Three Little Powders," an Ebsanay comedy; "Her Mother's Weakness," a Biograph drama, and a Vitagraph two-reel drama featuring Dorothy Kelley and Julia Swayne Gordon, entitled "The Vanity Case." Unconsciously a wealthy young lady purloins a vanity case. After she discovers that she has taken the case by mistake, she is afraid to return it to the department store. A young man of her acquaintance learns of her predicament and uses it to induce her to commit a real theft, by which he hopes to enrich himself.—Adv.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF LATE COUNTY TREASURER

The following resolution was adopted by the Board of County Commissioners on the 17th day of June, 1914:

Whereas, Frank P. Mannix, our beloved friend and officer of Nye county, has been called to his last resting place by the Father of us all; and

Whereas, He will no more be seen among us, and no more will our council be brightened and aided by his great experience and courage, his earnest efforts to promote the welfare of those he served, and the splendid intelligence which he brought to bear in the performance of his duties; and

Whereas, We knew him at his work in behalf of the people of Nye county to be scrupulous, careful, candid and just, with the object ever uppermost in his mind to do the greatest good for the greatest number, and ever cast out as unworthy that which might serve himself better than his neighbor; we knew that his personal advantage counted for naught, the faithful performance of his trust for everything; we knew him in his daily life to be kind and upright, generous and possessing a nature which radiated happiness and sunshine about all who approached him; and

Whereas, His death is a great and irreconcilable loss to his friends and his fellow citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby adopt the foregoing resolution as an expression of our appreciation of his virtue, and our sorrow at his departure, and in order that his name may be engrossed upon our records, as upon the tablets of our memory; and be it further

Resolved, That the said resolution be written upon the minutes of this board, and that a copy of the same be sent to the family of the said Frank P. Mannix, deceased.

R. B. DAVIS,
W. A. MARSH,
ALEX. FERGUSON,
Board of County Commissioners of Nye County, State of Nevada.

Attest:
ROBERT G. POHL,
Clerk of the Board.
